

Library Book Stops

Library depots

Co-located inside small businesses within the towns they service. Operate with the support of the local business owner who facilitates customer use. Local business who host, the depot are provided with training and support by the library service.

Click and Collect Hubs

Small library services located in a building fit for many purposes like day care, health services, Yoga sessions, meeting spaces and more. Opportunity to partner with community groups and local businesses.

Library book stops

No library staff. Scalable to the population size and space available. Browse, borrow, collect reservations and return items. WiFi may be available. Limited collection. Library cleaning and upkeep are part of the service agreement.